IMPORTANT SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

1. The use of oils and creams with your R49591 Explore Emotions Super Doll may result in damage. Contact with suntan lotion or sunscreen, lip care products, essential oils, coconut oil, and edible oils of any type can cause damage. Please DO NOT use any of the products listed above in combination with your R49591 Explore Emotions Super Doll.

2. Your R49591 Explore Emotions Super Doll features a battery pack and mechanism for producing sound that should NOT be submerged in water. The doll may be spot cleaned with mild soap and water and allowed to air dry. If after washing the fabric seems stiff, brush it out with a stiff-bristled brush.

3. Use your R49591 Explore Emotions Super Doll only as described in the product guide. Other use not recommended may cause fire, electric shock or injury.

4. Small parts of your R49591 Explore Emotions Super Doll may pose a choking hazard to young children. Supervise children at all times while the product is in use. NOT RECOMMENDED for children under 3.

5. DO NOT attempt to open the doll at the seams to repair a malfunctioning sound unit. Contact info@roylco.com for replacement parts.

6. If the sound mechanism of the doll is not working, make sure that (a) the batteries are correctly inserted; (b) the on/off switch on the battery pack is in the "on" position; (c) the batteries are charged.

7. If your R49591 Explore Emotions Super Doll arrives with a popped, loose or missing seam, please contact info@roylco.com.

8. If the battery pack is damaged, DO NOT USE. Contact info@roylco.com for help.

9. DO NOT iron any part of your R49591 Explore Emotions Super Doll.

10. If the doll becomes wet, allow it to air dry. DO NOT place doll in the dryer. DO NOT tumble dry the doll.

11. Replacement packs are available for your doll's Velcro™ facial features. Contact info@roylco.com to order.
